

WANTED – TWO REAL LIFE SUPERHEROES IN BEDFORDSHIRE TO HELP GIVE YOUNG CRIME SURVIVORS THEIR SMILES BACK

When a child experiences domestic abuse in their home it can have a devastating effect on their life.

Some are frightened, anxious and upset, others are angry and many lose their self confidence and self esteem.

We are looking to recruit two new superheroes to our team to help children recover from their experiences. Can you help give these children back their smiles, their safety and their future?

Role: Children's Independent Domestic Violence Adviser (KIDVA)

Salary: £26,500 - £28,500 Depending on experience and training

Hours: 37.5 hours a week

Location: Working from home and field based Bedfordshire.

Experience: We are looking for individuals with experience of working with children and young people. You will need a sound understanding of the practical, emotional, social and economic issues children affected by domestic abuse. You will need a thorough knowledge of the Children's Act, child protection and safeguarding for children and adults. You will be patient, understanding, calm and reassuring and be able to help children and young people understand their needs, assess the risks they face and support them in developing safety plans. You will also have experience working with multiple agencies to ensure the children's voices are heard and their needs and views are represented and met.

Not all superheroes wear costumes but if you join our KIDVA team you will get the chance to change lives.
